Good Afternoon Students and Families,

Well, we made it through another week of online learning! You should be very proud of yourselves (students and parents!). I know this is not what you want to be doing your last few weeks of school, but unfortunately this is the best we can do for now. The good news is that some of our county restrictions have been lifted, so at least you can walk to the park or get your car washed!

Our Kindergarten, 8th Grade, and Senior graduating classes were gifted with a yard sign this week from our Crusader Parent Club. I was fortunate enough to be one of the people delivering the signs, and it was such fun to see if we could sneak up on you without being noticed. Alas, I was discovered at several houses, but it was such fun to be able to wave to you from afar. We want all of you to know that we are still moving forward with planning our Kindergarten, 8th Grade, and Senior Graduation ceremonies and we will let you know those dates as soon as we are given the green light to celebrate together. Hopefully all of you have been able to visit our virtual Book Fair this week! Here is the link to order online by Monday, 4/27:

Please remember that you are responsible for completing your classwork and turning it in to your teachers. Our Library will be open on Monday, 4/27 from 9 am – 3 pm for you to drop off your assignments to be corrected and pick up any corrected work. You are welcome to email or send a picture of your work to your teacher as well. Your teachers have been working very hard to make sure you experience success this last 4th quarter of school, so please do your part in completing and turning in your assignments.

Our re-enrollment for next year is due by next Friday, May 1st. Please take a moment to complete the forms so we can move forward with our plans for next year. We're hoping all of you will come back, we've missed you!

I sent this graphic to our teachers this week and wanted to send it to you as well. I believe in you and I'm praying for all of you. Remember, we're all in this together!

God Bless You,

Mrs. Vicki Ollson
